MICHIGAN CITY BOYS, PORTAGE GIRLS SUCCESSFULLY DEFEND NWI TITLES Michigan City Claws their way from cellar to claim title

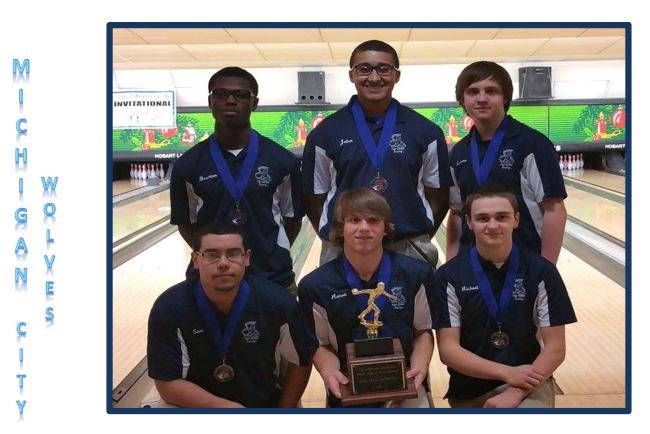

The 2014 NWI Invitational had two repeat champions for the first time in the events history, but, the teams - Michigan City boys and Portage girls - took far different paths to the title match.

The Michigan City boys found themselves in 8th place (of 8 teams) after the two games of traditional bowling, nearly 100 pins south of the final qualifying spot held by Lake Central. The Wolves however found their stride during the three "2-game" baker matches, going 3-0 with wins over Elkhart Central, Angola, and Highland, averaging nearly 187 while tournament leaders Laporte and Elkhart Central found scoring more difficult during the baker rounds.

On the the strength of their baker performance, the Wolves jumped to third behind new tournament leaders Portage and Lake Central.

In the semi-finals, the Wolves struggled out of the gate but rebounded as they had all day with a 2-1 victory over unbeaten Greater Lake County Conference leaders Lake Central, setting up the title match with fellow Lakeshore rival Portage. Michigan City took game one 191-160 but fell to a fired up Indians squad in game two by the score of 203-185. After an open frame to start game three, the Wolves found their stride with five consecutive strikes, rolling to a big 234-167 win, claiming their third overall and second consecutive NWI Invite title.

Michiana Central conference power Elkhart Central emerged from the consolation bracket with a lopsided 403-330 drubbing of the Quad County Conference leaders Hanover Central. Elkhart then went on to defeat Lake Central to earn the third place medals, dropping LC to fourth.

The boys field averaged 166.5 on the difficult WTBA Montreal pattern. Only Angola's Jordan Lively managed to surpass the 200 mark, with his 423 (211.5 average). Joining Lively on the boys all-tournament team were Elkhart Central teammates Walter Griffen, Garrett Moles, and Kyle Schieber, Laporte's Kole Matzke and Zach Goodrich, and Lake Central's Danny Revoir.

On the girls side, defending champions Portage relied on a strong traditional bowling performance that placed them second in the field of 8, only a few pins behind qualifying leaders Elkhart Memorial. However, after being dismantled by conference rival Chesterton in the first round of baker matches, the Indians found themselves on the outside looking in, dropping to 4th place. But the experienced Portage quintet guided by long-time coach Debbie Gossett did not panic, rebounding with a convincing win over arguably the state's historically most successful program - Lake Central 465-318. The "465" was the best set of the day by any team - boys or girls - in the field. The Indians closed out baker qualifying with a win over Laporte to secure the #2 qualifying spot and rematch with region nemesis Lake Central.

The semi-finals came down to the tenth frame in each game with Portage prevailing 172-169 and 149-145 in the best of three match. Next up, the Chargers of Elkhart Memorial, the leaders of the Michiana Central conference and tournament leaders. In yet another nail-biter, the game one was decided in the final frame with Elkhart securing a 146-144 win. Game 2 progressed in a similar fashion with both teams unable to distance themselves from the other. With the game in the balance, Portage managed to hold on with a 150-142 victory. The Indians then stormed out in Game three only to see Elkhart charge right back setting up yet another exciting finish. Reigning Indiana High School Bowler of the Year and University of Maryland Eastern Shore recruit Jackie Rhoda stepped up for Portage, cleared the demons of earlier games from her head, and tossed three outstanding shots to shut out Elkhart and secure a 165-145 win and the Indians second title in as many years.

Chesterton emerged from the consolation bracket with a victory over Elkhart Central but then fell in the 3rd place match to Lake Central to claim the fourth place medals.

The girls field averaged 159 on the challenging WTBA Montreal pattern. Elkhart Memorial's Victoria Smith led the girls with a 418 (209 average), closely followed by her teammate, Brooklyn Schutz. Others earning all tournamen honors were Lake Central's Samantha Watson, Chesterton's Becky Lohse, Laporte's Bailey Rogers, and Elkhart Central teammates Lizzy Glaser and Samantha Hughey.
